Huber Renamed Secretary Of Blue Cross Unit

Walter L. Huber, administrator of Tacoma General Hospital, has been re-elected secretary of Washington-Alaska Blue Cross. He was also elected as a hospital representative on the board of trustees of the organization.

John J. Peschek, comptroller of St. Joseph's Hospital, Tacoma, was one of four persons named as recipients of the 1967 Blue Cross Accounting Scholarship. The one-week scholarships are awarded annually to persons connected with the management of fiscal affairs of Blue Cross member hospitals. They pay expenses to a summer accounting institute at Ohio State University, in Columbus.
